Policy Finance & Resources Committee Meeting Monday 3rd August 2015

ADDENDUM

(to be tabled at the meeting)

12 Funding for the Scout Bonfire

x

To consider a proposal from the Chairman.

It looks very likely that at the present moment in time the main Bonfire event in Sandy run by the Sandy Scouts will not go ahead. As the Chairman found this rather concerning he thinks it is an issue that since it affects the whole town does warrant some discussions between councillors. As the years have gone by and the cost of fireworks has increased the Scouts are laying themselves open to an enormous risk to put on this event. The cost of the fireworks he believes to be about £4,000 and they would be looking to halve their risk and borrow £2,000 until after the event. There is of course the risk that if it rained then the Council would not see all of the £2,000 returned. The scouts would continue to do all of the work and so are just looking for a financial partner to share the risk.
